

As a group, let's dig deeper about what we learned today and answer the following:

As a group, discuss your responses to the following:

1. Do you speak with honest words, careful words and building words?
2. Which among the three do you do best?
Encourage your group on how you speak this way.
3. Which among the three do you need to improve on? What are your specific action plans?

Want to be moved by a different kind of love?

Continue with us and your group for the concluding session next Welcome Wednesday, same time and venue.

Invite family, friends and co-workers.
